

Imaginative Narrative

19

If all the people in the world had the same hair colour ...

Informative Report

4

Find information about a famous person from your country. What did he or she do to become famous? Why did you choose this person? Share your findings in a report.

Persuasive Exposition

17

Think of your favourite ride at an amusement park. Design a brochure that will encourage others to try the ride. Make the brochure easy to read, colourful and appealing.

Imaginative Narrative

25

What was the most frightening moment in your life?
Write a narrative from your personal experience.

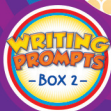

WRITING
PROMPTS
- BOX 2 -

Informative Procedure

2

Think of a skill in which you have a lot of talent. Is it drawing? Kicking a football? Perhaps it is something else. Write a paragraph explaining how to do this skill. Do you have any tips or suggestions for people just learning? Use step-by-step directions to help others learn.

Persuasive Exposition

14

Imagine that you are running for council in your school. You have been given the opportunity to deliver a speech to the entire school. This speech is to encourage the children to vote for you. What can you say to convince them? What are your plans for the school and the children if you win the election?

Imaginative Poetry

11

Write a haiku about a panther. What thoughts come to mind upon seeing a panther in the wild? What do you think when you see one in captivity? Where does this panther sleep? What does it eat? What words are associated with panthers? Share these interesting thoughts in a haiku.

Informative Recount

12

Describe a day in the life of your favourite music star. What does your music star do in the morning? What does your music star like to eat? How does he or she spend the day? Speculate on how your favourite music star feels about his or her life. How can you tell? Describe the behaviours your music star exhibits that let you know how he or she might feel about life.

Persuasive Exposition

31

Laws are being passed to prohibit smoking in public places. What do you think about these laws? Should people have the right to smoke in public? Whose rights are being infringed? Write an editorial trying to convince an audience of your opinion. Remember to use specific facts and information to back up your claims.

